9th February.

My dear Father,

I want to send you this card to wish you very many happy returns of your birthday as I am not at home to be with you on your birthday. I was pleased to see you on Tuesday although I did not get much chance to speak to you. Hope you got on alright on the lorry and that you did not catch cold. The weather here is simply beautiful and yesterday Auntie and I went to Hildenborough in the afternoon to a meeting which was very interesting. Mr. Jackson the builder came this afternoon as I was going out so I expect Grandma told him about Offham but I don't know I wish you would send me a little more money so that I don't run short & can't pay my fare to come back next week.
